AWARDED TO NEW CASTLE.

Mansfield's Claim Not Accepted by the Inter-State League. President Not Elected—Another Meeting in November.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Sept. 29.—The Inter-State League meeting was held at the Hotel Pierce last night, but owing to the late arrival of Charles Strobel, of Toledo, the meeting did not convene until 10:30 p. m., when the business of last year was settled up. The different clubs were represented by George, of New Castle; Lytle, of Wheeling; Mike Guenzel, of Youngstown; Sid Eubank, of Port Wayne; P. W. Torreyson, of Columbus; Charles Strobel, of Toledo; and W. R. Arnold, of Dayton. There were three candidates for president, but at a late hour no selection was made. The candidates were C. B. Power, the present incumbent; William Myers, of Port Wayne; and Bart Howard, of Mansfield. While the name of George Moreland, of Pittsburgh, was frequently mentioned as a substitute for that of President Power, providing he would not accept, the meeting adjourned at 4:30 this morning without electing a president. Mansfield's claim was not allowed and the point was awarded to New Castle. Another meeting will be held at Cleveland in November.

Last Game of the Season.

The last game of the season will be played this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by the Wheeling Inter-State and Gutman base ball teams. Poole or Wells will pitch for the leaguers, and McGinnis, who will probably be given an engagement by Wheeling next spring, will twirl for the amateurs.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

BOSTON TOOK TWO.

BOSTON, Sept. 29.—Boston took two games today, the first by opportune hitting in the eighth inning. The box work of both Nichols and Evans was excellent. In the seventh inning of the second game, after two were out, Boston scored four runs on two passes to first, a two-bagger and two singles. The game was tied in the eighth inning on account of darkness. Attendance, 10,000. Scores: First game—BOS. 4, PHIL. 1. RHE Boston 4, PHIL. 1. Batters—Nichols and Sullivan; Evans and Kittredge. Earned runs—Boston, 2; Philadelphia, 1. Time—1:40. Umpires—Swartwood and Hunt.

AN EXCITING GAME.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 29.—A base on balls to Brodie, Keister's sacrifice and Sheppard's single in the ninth won an exciting game for the Orioles from the Superbas today. McGinnis was in fine form when men were on base. Hughes pitched in masterly style, and both teams were almost perfectly supported. Baltimore showed the better base running and "inside work." Score: BAL. 4, PHIL. 1. RHE Baltimore 4, PHIL. 1. Batters—Brodie and McGinnis; Keister and Sullivan. Earned runs—Baltimore, 2; Philadelphia, 1. Time—1:40. Umpires—Egan and Dwyer.

PHILLIES OUTPLAYED.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—Philadelphia was outplayed at every point by New York this afternoon, and was defeated handsomely. With the exception of Delahanty, none of the locals could do anything with Gettles' delivery. They had several chances to score, but spoiled them by foul base running. The fielding of Gettles was noticeably brilliant. Attendance, 2,000. Score: N. Y. 4, PHIL. 1. RHE New York 4, PHIL. 1. Batters—Delahanty and McGinnis; Gettles and Warner. Earned runs—New York, 2; Philadelphia, 1. Time—1:40. Umpires—Mannix and Snyder.

BOXING.

Eddie Kennedy, of Allegheny, who meets Jack Waldron, of Paterson, N. J., here on October 12, has been matched with George Kilwan, "The Mystery," for October 16. They will battle near Pittsburgh. Kennedy is but twenty-three years of age, is a hurricane fighter, and goes at his man from the start. He will be stacked up against a stiff man in Waldron, whose last engagement was a fierce tussle with Spike Sullivan, the latter winning in twenty-two rounds.

George Carl, of Benwood, is out with a challenge to Mike Farragher, of Youngstown, at 140 pounds, for the Drovers' Home Club, on December 25.

The Drovers' Home Club has matched Eddie Gardner and Johnny Van Hest, for October 16.

Eddie Gardner lost the decision in a fifteen round contest at Sandusky, O., Thursday night, to Freddy Green. It went the limit.

Bill Miller, of the Sixth ward, is likely to be opposed by Fred Egan, of Parkersburg, instead of Frank Salsbury, for the preliminary to the Metropolitan's next entertainment.

Kid Wanko was indicted at Parkersburg for killing Fred Carr in a boxing contest, and his trial set for October 7.

FOOT BALL.

Next week will see the local football teams begin active preparations for the season's work. No steps toward a reorganization of the W. A. C. have been taken, it remaining for some clubbing to take the initiative. "Red" Edwards, who was always in the fore, and the head and shoulders of the big team, is working in Denison. Probably after the various local eleven take the field a star aggregation may be selected from them.

The Wheeling high school team has been matched with Alfred Henshaw, through whom 120 pound teams have arranged games.

John J. Shipper, of the First West Virginia regiment team, is boxing

The Cathedral high school and Linsly Institute teams have begun practice, football in Benwood, and will line his talent up for practice next week. They will average 170 pounds.

Frank Kincheloe has reorganized the Madisons and they will put up a stiff front this fall.

Aetnaville has a score of teams in formation. The Buckeyes promise to be about the strongest in the valley.

MARTIN'S FERRY NEWS.

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor.

The Hon. Lavoisier Spence, of this city, the Democratic nominee for Congress, is evidently determined to stay in the race and, if possible, give Mr. Gill the race. Mr. Spence was at Smithfield yesterday, shaking hands with old friends and incidentally announcing to them that there had been a meeting of the Democrats of this city at Smithfield yesterday, and that the honor of the nomination as congressman from the old sixteenth district had been conferred upon him. Mr. J. R. Montgomery accepts the challenge of Dr. A. R. Ong for a one hundred dollar challenge to a picnic this afternoon, and says if the doctor expects to be victorious he must do better than 100 seconds. The fact is if either of the old gentlemen make the run in 104 hours they will be remarkably well off if either of them finish the one hundred yards at all it will surprise many of their friends.

W. C. Blair, the clerk at R. T. Ong's Broadway drug store, met with a very painful accident yesterday afternoon while cleaning soda water glasses and while endeavoring to get his right hand into a glass it gave way under the strain, causing a ugly gash in his first finger. Several stitches were required to close the wound.

Everything is completed for the mammoth picnic to be given by our friends to-day, in McDowell's orchard, and whether it will be a success financially, depends now entirely upon the weather, and the weather man's forecast is pleasing.

James Craig, of Titonville, has sold his property at that place, including his saloon, to Mr. Korn, of Fulton, for $5,000. Mr. Craig will move into his property on the main street, in this city, where he will open a saloon in his old stand.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith are the proud parents of a new girl, which arrived at their residence yesterday afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Gow, to J. Calvin Garvin, is announced to occur at high noon, Wednesday, October 10.

Mrs. Edward Undergraff, of Anderson, Ind., is the guest of Miss Agnes Bell and Lizzie Shaver, on Third street.

Howard Joy will be down from Pittsburgh to-day, to spend Sunday with his parents on Broadway.

Mrs. William Prince, who has been visiting in the past two weeks, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Orler, of Mansfield, are visiting relatives on Fifth street.

Wrightman Frazier, of Sawley, Pa., is the guest of relatives here.

BELLAIRE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County

The Pythian fair has exceeded the highest hopes of those in charge, and notwithstanding the rain and threatening weather, they are on the good side of the accounts by long odds. Thursday night the enclosure was packed and thronged by an immense crowd, and the tickets sold on that day indicated the presence of more than 3,000 people. These packed within two squares made a very solid mass of people. Yesterday afternoon and last evening the attendance was almost as good as on Thursday. The Knights being entirely safe from any loss and certain to realize handsomely from the affair will put up the best entertainment possible this afternoon and evening, and if it is a fair day the enclosed space will surely hold the crowds that will flock to the nicely decorated booths and the other attractions in a separate enclosure, but all have to be reached through the main gate.

COL. POORMAN RETIRES.

Colonel Poorman prints in his paper—The Tribune—yesterday evening, his farewell to the readers of that paper. At the age of seventy-four he says he does not care to continue the worry incident to the publication of a daily newspaper, and yet he does not relinquish the work without regret that time in its mutations has made it almost imperative. He will not say by whom, however, but will continue to write and publish the Ohio Bell-Metallist. He refers kindly to the friends that have stood by him during all the years of his newspaper career.

BELLAIRE BRIEFS.

Senator Charles M. Hogg made a nice sum of money on the extensive holding of wool he had by letting it go this week at thirty-three and one-half cents per pound. He had been buying for months and held for this opportunity. Other Harrison county men fared well in the same way, but Senator Hogg was the largest buyer.

Mr. George W. Yost, of the Bellaire Bottle Company, returned yesterday from New York. There was such a tremendous crowd in the great metropolis that he felt it not worth while to make the effort to see Admiral Dewey, but the decorations in New York are pronounced the grandest the world ever saw.

T. C. Bower, of Glencoe, lost his pocket containing $60 in cash and $5 in checks, while in the city Thursday. He missed the street car, but he did not miss his pocket-book until he got home. It may have been stolen and he may have lost it.

No one has yet been apprehended for the bold and daring robbery of the residence of W. S. Hetherington, but it develops that more things were taken than was at first thought. Jewelry and silverware, all except a ladies' gold watch, is missing.

John W. Wilkinson, the Republican candidate for county commissioner, and his competitor, Ham Hiley, were both in town this week, cultivating the voters.

Messrs. A. W. Beatty, of the auditor's office, and John F. Hays, of the treasurer's office, were down from St. Clairsville yesterday, to take in the street fair.

The Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad given excursion rates to this city on account of the street fair, to-day, from all points south of East Liverpool.

Rev. O. W. Holmes left yesterday to fill appointments as presiding elder in the Steubenville district.

The Uniform Rank, K. of P., made a fine showing at the street fair last night.

Mr. R. M. Gilliland left for Chicago yesterday.

BENWOOD NEWS.

Local Happenings of Importance in a Busy Town.

Talking to the Intelligencer man yesterday, a stockholder of the electric light company credited the present controversy to an oversight in drafting the ordinance. It was agreed that Moundsville prices should govern, but no provision was made for "commercial" lights, by which are meant chiefly lights burned in business places throughout the night. For these twenty cents a month is asked now, and the electric light man says fifty cents is the Moundsville price, and that, in fact, the Benwood's rate is lower than in Wheeling, Bellaire, or other surrounding towns.

Deputy Sheriff Dick, of Columbiana county, Ohio, is looking up details in the record of Mrs. Walker Clark, who is under arrest on a bigamy charge. Clark and his wife lived in Clay district, this county, until about four months ago. The woman eloped to Wellsville, Ohio, with a man named Gray, an employee of Clark, and there was married to him.

Father McMenamin is reported in improved health, and is expected to leave North Wheeling hospital in a few days. It is understood there will be a new pastor here shortly, but he has not been named yet.

Galla Donley, of West Alexander, and Miss Leona Fouka, of Cayesville, were married Wednesday evening, at the home of J. T. Roseberry.

Rev. James Price will preach at the M. E. church to-morrow morning, and the evening services will be in charge of Prof. M. E. Gorman.

The Benwood football material will be out for practice next week. The fever is catching the boys here to a great extent this fall.

The congregation of St. Matthew's German Lutheran church will meet to-morrow afternoon to arrange for a supper and bazaar.

Mrs. Caroline Evans and Mrs. Harry M. Stewart returned yesterday from New York. There was such a tremendous crowd in the great metropolis that he felt it not worth while to make the effort to see Admiral Dewey, but the decorations in New York are pronounced the grandest the world ever saw.
